

NJ CPA NAMED ONE OF THE NATION'S MOST INFLUENTIAL PEOPLE IN ACCOUNTING

(Dayton, NJ) Accounting Today has named E. Martin Davidoff, CPA, Esq., one of the Top 100 Most Influential People in Accounting for 2009. Davidoff was selected from hundreds of candidates due to his status as “a long-time leader of the tax practitioner community in its dealings with government,” according to the magazine.

Accounting Today reports business news of the tax and accounting industry. Editor Bill Carlin said tax experts like Davidoff were chosen for the Top 100 Most Influential list because “the CPA profession will be among those counted on to help lead the way out of the current financial malaise, no matter how dark and fraught with pitfalls.” He described Davidoff as “a major participant in the upcoming debates over issues that matter to practitioners, such as preparer registration.”

Davidoff is a fierce advocate for the tax profession. He founded the IRS Tax Liaison Committee of the American Association of Attorney-Certified Public Accountants which meets regularly with IRS officials to discuss procedural matters. He has testified before Congress on issues that impact taxpayers and tax practitioners alike. He has spoken at the IRS National Tax Forums, and he teaches seminars on IRS tax matters to share his knowledge with others.

A resident of South Brunswick, Davidoff is the founder and firm manager of E. Martin Davidoff & Associates in Dayton, NJ. “I am deeply honored to receive such a designation for the sixth consecutive year, especially with the caliber of professionals and highly respected national figures on this year’s list,” he said, noting that the list includes President Barack Obama, SEC Chair Mary Schapiro and IRS Commissioner Douglas Shulman.

Established in 1981, E. Martin Davidoff & Associates provides expert services in tax controversy work, IRS problems resolution, individual and corporate taxation, income tax research and planning, S corporations, business start-ups, CFO in a box, and business consulting. Davidoff is also managing member of Cope Management Group, LLC, which hosts educational programs for tax professionals. Additional information is available at www.taxattorneycpa.com.
